ATLANTIS

Power Without Wisdom

AARON GARRITY COLLECTION

THE LEGEND

The story of Atlantis comes to us through the writings of Plato more than two thousand years ago.

Plato described Atlantis through dialogues between Socrates, Timaeus, and Critias.

A story passed down from earlier generations about a civilization that had achieved extraordinary advancement before losing connection with the principles that created its greatness.

Whether Plato intended Atlantis as history, philosophy, or warning has been debated for centuries.

But perhaps that debate misses the deeper message.

He described an island civilization beyond imagination.

A society of beauty.

Knowledge.

Engineering.

Innovation.

Abundance.

A civilization that appeared to have mastered the external world.

Atlantis represented possibility.

The dream hidden within humanity.

The desire to build.

To discover.

To create.

The legends of the past are not written to entertain us.

*They are written to

FOR GENERATIONS
HUMANITY HAS ASKED:

Did Atlantis exist?

BUT PERHAPS THE DEEPER QUESTION IS:

Why has humanity never been able to forget it?

THE MIRROR & THE RISE

THE MIRROR

Ancient stories often spoke through symbols because symbols reveal what information alone cannot.

The external story reveals an internal condition.

What happens in the world often reflects what first happens in consciousness.

The invisible always comes before the visible.

THE RISE

Human beings were born to create.

Creation is not the problem.
Expansion is not the problem.
Achievement is not the problem.

Power is simply potential.

The question is who we become while creating it.

SO BELOW

WHAT WE BUILD OUTSIDE
REFLECTS WHAT WE BUILD INSIDE.

THE FORGETTING

THE FORGETTING

Every civilization eventually faces the same test.

The moment where intelligence begins separating from wisdom.

Success does not change people. Success reveals people.

THE AMPLIFICATION

Power amplifies what already exists.

THE COLLAPSE

Companies collapse internally before bankruptcy.

Relationships collapse internally before separation.

Civilizations collapse internally before invasion.

The storm does not create the weakness in the foundation.

The storm reveals it.

THE FOUNDATION REVEALS WHAT WAS HIDDEN.

When harmony becomes control, creation becomes extraction.

When service becomes status,
power becomes separation.

*When wisdom is forgotten,

BALANCE ONCE RESTORED
STRENGTH ALIGNED WITH WISDOM
CREATION IN SERVICE OF CONSCIOUSNESS

THE RETURN

NOT A MYTH. A CHOICE.

THE RECOGNITION

Civilizations fall when wisdom is forgotten. They rise when it is remembered.

THE REALIGNMENT

The return is not to the past. It is the restoration of alignment with natural law and higher truth.

THE RESPONSIBILITY

Knowledge without integration is the same as ignorance. Remembering is the beginning. Living it is the return.

THE FUTURE

The next civilization will not be built on power without wisdom. It will be built on consciousness, service, and unity.

“

*We do not return to Atlantis.
We return to ourselves.*

THE CHOICE REMAINS.

Will we remember?

OR WILL WE REPEAT?

*The archives remember.
The future is unwritten.*
